

2010 Be Anything Luncheon

Description of Silent Auction Items

Have you ever wondered what it's like to be a zookeeper? How about an Olympic swim coach? A pastry chef? A crime reporter?

Well, now's your chance to experience these dream jobs! Mi Casa's Be Anything Luncheon will include a unique silent auction featuring opportunities to hang out with fascinating professionals and "be anything" for the day!

Mi Casa Resource Center's Second Annual BE ANYTHING Luncheon & Silent Auction
Friday, May 21, 2010 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Denver Athletic Club

Tickets are $50 each and selling out fast. Call or e-mail Cheryl to purchase tickets, a table or to get more information about the luncheon and dream-job auction: 303-539-5609 or cbalchunas@MiCasaResourceCenter.org.

2010 Dream Jobs Up for Bid

Be an Olympic Swim Coach: spend the day with the head coach of the U.S. Swim Team and rub elbows with heroes from the 2008 Beijing games.

Be a Zookeeper: shadow a zookeeper at the Denver Zoo and learn about caring for the animals and the ins and outs of running a popular urban zoo.

Be a Race Car Driver: learn racing techniques while driving a real Porsche race car on a track outside Denver.

Be a TV Reporter: hang out with The Denver Channel's weekend anchor/reporter Ana Cabrera and experience the newsroom, filming studio and even the chance to report on breaking news.

Be a Radio DJ: sit in the booth with DJ Mikey in the mornings from Alice 105.9 FM and participate in the live morning show!

Be a Denver Post Crime Reporter: shadow beat reporter Felisa Cardona and experience what it's like to go to court, conduct an interview and produce a story on deadline.

Be a Pastry Chef: spend the day surrounded by sweet smells in at Azucar Bakery and learn how to make a wedding cake from start to finish, including decoration!

Be a Raging Rapids Fan: targeted to kids, this is an experience your little soccer player won't soon forget! As an honorary youth team captain, a child will have the chance to take the field immediately before kick-off at the July 4th home game against the New York Red Bulls and get a jersey signed by the entire team.

Be a Queen and Princess: perfect for mother-daughter, this package includes hair styling and makeovers for two at Planet Labs Salon in Cherry Creek North.

Be a Roaring Rockies Fan: with four tickets (great seats!) to the home game of your choice and a signed piece of Rockies memorabilia, this is a great package for the boy (or girl) of summer in your life.
